HOTELS ARE FILLED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20,-A senesses who have been standing pat have rious situation faces the city in the determined that it is better to tell all lack of hotel accommodations. Last a room was vacant and people were sleeping on cots in the halls,

> Westbound travel has been exceptionally heavy of late and people are flocking to the city from all over the country. The hotels have been besieged with telegrams seeking to reserve accommodations.

At present no solution of the problem of housing the travelers appears. Several hotels have been planned, but their completion is so far in the future that they cannot be counted on to help relieve the press of travel.

SAVES HIS MOTHER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 .- Henry Hertzfeld, of Topeka, Kans., reached New York yesterday in time to save his aged mother, whom he had not seen in 35 years, from deportation to Germany, from which country she arrived in the United States six days ago. Hertzfeld had started from Topeka before the arrival of his mother here and consequently the telegrams from the immigration authorities sent Hertzfeld did not reach him. The immigration officials had decided to deport Mrs. Hertzfeld on a steamer which sailed today.

INTEREST IS TAXABLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.-Interest upon United States government bonds is taxable whether those bonds are owned by an individual or a corporation and whether the interest is held in the form of a draft, check or money. This decision has just been reached by the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the Hibernia Savings and Loan Society against the city and county of San Francisco, for the recovery of taxes paid under protest on the interest of $13,000,000 worth of bonds.

PLAIN STATEMENTS UPON AN IM-PORTANT MATTER-CONTRIBU-TOR CLAIMS THERE IS DISCRIM-INATION AT PORTLAND.

The Astorian is in receipt of the following communication from reliable sources and publishes it without comment, and will accord the same freedom to whosoever shall desire to anwer it. The subject matter is beyond immediate latitude of the paper:

Editor Astorian-There is now a great wave washing Portland to gather $35,-000 for the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. I do not believe in it.

Money spent in a costly building. costly furnishings, a well paid secretary, ladies of position and wealth on the committees, gentlemen also, and young girls at the counters of our dry goods stores working for $20 a month.

I know, for a fact, that ladies of mature age, over 25, having salaries of $60 to $80 a month, have been living in the Y. W. C. A., while poor girls have been turned away, "no room." I asked why?

"Oh, it pays us better to keep Miss So and So."
